Another lovely angle

I'm a Mam-Made original, made with love by a genuine Geordie Mam.

Previously I belonged in a man's wardrobe, but he no longer loved me and sent me away. I was so lucky Mam found me and took me home, gave me a bath, and helped me look like I do today by giving me some up-cycling love.

The issue is Mam loves to save all the unloved clothes and tells us our new person is out there waiting to adopt us. Will it be you?

I'm ready and waiting, I'm fully house trained, and I play very nicely with others. You can hang me in your wardrobe with all your other lovely friends and I'll be ready to go out and about whenever you want.

Remember, I'm not the same as all the others out there. I was once, but then Mam turned me into a one-off. I'm special, and only you will be trusted to look after me.
